Committees

The Society of Edmonton Atheists invites you to take part in deciding what we do and how we do it by joining one of the five newly established committees. This is your opportunity to define what the SEA will become as we pursue our goals of a positive image in Edmonton, a more secular society, and, above all, a community within the SEA. More manpower allows for better events and functions by the SEA, and your personal involvement creates the ones that you most want to see.
