

THOUGHTFUL RECOMMENDED VIDEOS

The Society of Edmonton Atheists supports freethinking and encourages the quest for knowledge and skeptic inquiry into social issues pertaining to religion. We do not try to present radical atheist points of view, we present religion and its affect on the human condition as we see it in the modern and historic world. We will recommend a variety of videos and sites as resources for those that would like to know more about what is going on in the world and how religion is effecting various societies.

Some of the following videos will expose, through humor and reasoning, why atheists question the existence of a deity and see the irrationality of faith. We try to recommend inoffensive resource material to simply expose the viewer to alternative points of view. Atheists and agnostics will appreciate the open-minded knowledge gained; and those questioning their faith will, hopefully, be helped in their inquiry into faith and religion's role in society.

Christopher Hitchens (1949 - 2011) was an Anglo-American author and journalist. His books made him a prominent public intellectual and a staple of talk shows and lecture circuits. He was a columnist and literary critic at Vanity Fair, Slate, The Atlantic, World Affairs, The Nation, Free Inquiry and a variety of other media outlets. He was one of the "Four Horsemen of new atheism" who, along with Sam Harris, Richard Dawkins, and Daniel Dennett, try through science, philosophy and reasoning to educate the world on why "god is not Great".

The following reference videos show some of the debates that 'Hitch' participated in against theologians, Christian apologists, and others representing their various faiths. His cool-headed reasoning usually prevailed, but sometimes his irascible side came out with forcefulness and bluntness to get his point across*.
